Report on Yuva Manthan - Model United Nations (YMUN)

In alignment with the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047 and in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), Vishwa Chethana Degree College, Anekal organized the Yuva Manthan - Model United Nations (YMUN) on April 29, 2024. The event, with the theme "Lifestyle for Environment," aimed to stimulate discussions and negotiations among participants to identify sustainable solutions to environmental challenges through the adoption of mindful lifestyles.

The event was inaugurated by Mr. Prakash Reddy T, the Principal of Vishwa Chethana Degree College. In his inaugural address, he emphasized the importance of involving youth in global dialogues on critical issues and commended the initiative for providing a platform for young leaders to develop leadership and problem-solving skills. Mr. Srinivasa Reddy.T, the co-ordinator, played a crucial role in organizing the event, ensuring its success.

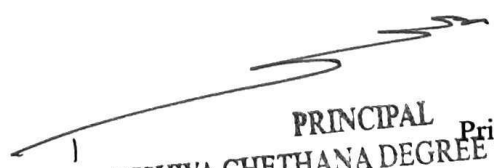

With the participation of 18 students from various disciplines, the event focused on issues related to COP29. Participants represented different nations such as Canada, India, Japan, Sweden, Greece, Australia, Vietnam and Thailand. They engaged in debates and formulated resolutions on environmental sustainability, climate change, and responsible consumption patterns. The resolutions drafted by the General Assembly reflected the diverse viewpoints and commitments of the delegates, fostering collaborative efforts towards promoting sustainable lifestyles and mitigating environmental degradation.

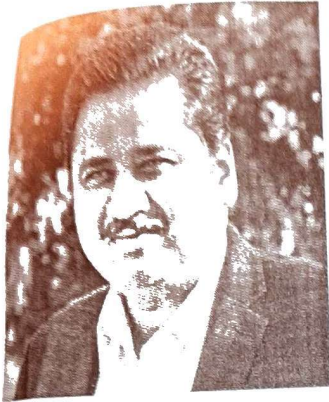

Aside from their roles as delegates, students also took on roles as Secretariats and Press Corps, adding realism and complexity to the event. At the conclusion of the YMUN, outstanding students were recognized for their performance. Ms. Komal Sharma was awarded the Best Delegate, Ms. BANUPRIYA J the High Commendation, and Ms. Gowri was presented with the Certificate of Merit. The event provided a unique opportunity for youth to experience international diplomacy, negotiations, and decision-making processes within the framework of the United Nations, fostering a sense of global citizenship and inspiring them to actively contribute to a sustainable and equitable future.

As the Principal of Vishwa Chethana Degree College, it gives me immense pleasure to announce the successful conclusion of Yuva Manthan - Model United Nations, an event that epitomizes our commitment to nurturing global citizens and future leaders. Yuva Manthan aimed to ignite the spirit of diplomacy, leadership, and sustainable development among the youth. With the theme "Lifestyle for Environment," students engaged in lively debates, discussions, and negotiations simulating the workings of the United Nations. They explored innovative solutions to global environmental challenges, demonstrating their dedication to creating a more sustainable world.

I commend the participants for their enthusiasm, critical thinking, and diplomatic skills showcased throughout the event. Their engagement and commitment reflect the values of Vishwa Chethana Degree College in promoting holistic education and fostering a culture of excellence.

I also express my gratitude to the delegates and guests for their support and participation, which contributed to the event's success.

As we look towards the future, let us continue to inspire and empower our youth to lead with integrity, compassion, and a commitment to sustainability. Together, we can create a better world for generations to come.

I am thrilled to extend my heartfelt congratulations on the successful completion of Yuva Manthan - Model United Nations. Student's dedication, hard work, and passion for global issues have truly shone through during this event.

Yuva Manthan has provided a platform for meaningful discussions, critical thinking, and the development of leadership skills, and I am proud to see how each of them embraced this opportunity.

I would also like to extend my gratitude to the coordinators and organizers for their tireless efforts in ensuring the smooth conduct of the event their dedication and attention to detail have played a significant role in making Yuva Manthan a success.

I am delighted to have participated in Yuva Manthan - Model United Nations, a transformative event designed to empower young minds and cultivate a sense of global citizenship. Your enthusiastic participation and passion for international affairs and diplomacy are truly inspiring.

Yuva Manthan aimed to provide a platform for meaningful discussions, real-world diplomatic simulations, and innovative solutions to global challenges. This event was an opportunity for us to nurture critical thinking, enhance public speaking skills, and foster leadership qualities among all participants.
